One of the most interesting cultural events nowadays in Warsaw is the exhibition "Duda Gracz to Chopin". There is the exhibition of 295 paintings of Polish painter, draughtsman, stage designer and professor of visual arts Jerzy Duda Gracz (1941 – 2004). Each individual painting is inspired by a successive musical composition of Frederic Chopin. This is the first in the world exhibition of all works of Frederic Chopin in form of painting interpretation and the biggest one author painting collection in Poland. The exhibition was presented previously in Polish Pavilion at Expo 2005 in Japan. The exhibition take place in National Opera Theatre in Warsaw near the congress venue (see map) and is opened daily from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. till November 5.
