EUROPEAN PAEDIATRIC OPHTHALMOLOGICAL SOCIETY

The Annual Meeting was held since 1973 when EPOS was founded as European Paediatric Ophthalmology Group (EPOG). EPOG was transferred to an official society in 2002, aiming to bring together everyone with an interest in paediatric and genetic ophthalmology, to promote scientific research and its implementation in practice throughout Europe.

Membership fees: Full Members: 70 €
Members in Training: 20 €
Membership includes an online subscription to the European Journal of Ophthalmology and a 70 € reduction on the Annual Meeting fees.

To support young academics travel grants and best presentation awards are assigned among contributing participants of the Annual Meeting born after 1974. The ‘EPOS Research Grant’ is open to all members in clinical and basic research.

All details on membership and grants can be found at: http://www.epos-focus.org
